

Did you know that...?

Pro Collagen Face Peeling 2 in 1 50 ml

- 1 | Naturalness index of the face scrub is as much as 92,3%. The way to determine the naturalness of cosmetic products is through the method contained in the ISO 16128 standard. This standard defines the ingredients of natural origin and introduces the so-called naturalness index of the cosmetic.
- 2 | It's a 2 in 1 product due to the unique combination of enzymatic and fine-grained exfoliation. Thanks to the presence of papain, a natural plant enzyme, the product ensures gentle and efficient enzymatic exfoliation of dead skin cells, making your skin look radiant. Additionally, the product contains ground particles of sweet almonds, apricots and walnuts which ensure gentle yet effective mechanical exfoliation.
- 3 | Ground particles of sweet almonds, apricots and walnuts contained in the scrub formula ensure gentle yet effective mechanical exfoliation, removing calluses and gently massaging the skin of the face.
- 4 | The formula contains a unique active exfoliating complex. The complex includes papain with exfoliating properties and urea with hydrating properties, inorganic ions of chloride, potassium, calcium and magnesium, and amino acids.
- 5 | The scrub is a treasure trove of active ingredients: collagen, allantoin, exfoliating complex with papaya, ground particles of sweet almonds, apricots and walnuts, lemon balm extract, aloe extract, humectants, canola and babassu oils.
- 6 | The product contains fish collagen which hydrates the skin and improves its elasticity.
- 7 | Thanks to its 2 in 1 formula, the scrub has gentle exfoliating properties and can be used by people with sensitive and normal skin.
- 8 | Pro Collagen Face Peeling 2 in 1 complements other products from Pro Collagen line. With regular usage, the scrub boosts the effects of other care products (creams, mask, serum, hydrates - Face Platinum, Elixir Rose).
- 9 | Pro Collagen Face Peeling 2 in 1 is the key element of comprehensive face skin care and the second step following a thorough cleanse. It's a perfect complement to your daily ritual which prepares the skin for subsequent steps of skin care.
- 10 | Thanks to the easy, hygienic and convenient package in the form of a convenient tube, product application is easy and safe – No Touch Formula.
